Invitation to the 2017 Conference at Graz University of Technology

Dear colleague,

We cordially invite you to crp 2017, the 36th Conference of Rectors and Presidents of European Universities of Technology.

On the first day, keynote speakers will discuss the Conference topic from different perspectives. On the second day, university leaders will present the strategies and approaches their institutions are following addressing different views about and approaches towards internationalisation - using the opportunities for world-wide cooperation as well as coping with the challenges of global competition.

General background of the conference:

Following a joint initiative of the rectors of Vienna University of Technology and RWTH Aachen University, this conference has been started in 1980 with the aim to establishing a forum for top representatives of leading science and engineering universities in Europe for

- discussing topics of major common concern, that are not discussed in other fora,
- identifying differences and commonalities of existing solutions to problems of common interest,
- developing new ideas and - if appropriate - preparing recommendations on specific topics, and
- forming a 'think tank' for the future development of the universities of technology in Europe.

As an informal grouping the conference has no formal international or European organisational structure.

Discussions at the 2017 Conference will address issues such as:

The conference topic will give an opportunity to discuss different aspects of the international dimension of universities' strategies, initiatives and activities, such as:

- University strategies for internationalisation
 - Strategic partnerships
 - Mobility of Students and Faculty
 - Joint study programmes and research activities
- Choosing the right instruments
- The role of international university networks and associations
- Institutional management of international cooperation

We are looking forward meeting you at Graz University of Technology in September 2017.
